

Guys & Dolls

On November 24, 1950, the face of Broadway and of musical comedy was changed forever when "Guys & Dolls" hit the stage and marked its place in musical history. Its glorious Guys and delectable Dolls were the gangsters and showgirls, the gamblers and missionaries of an imagined Times Square where Damon Runyon's colourful characters came to life:

Nathan Detroit, engaged to Miss Adelaide for fourteen years and his permanent floating crap game, Miss Adelaide the night club chantoosie and Oh! So! patient fiancée; Sky Masterson, the high roller, duped into a sucker bet by Nathan that changes his life forever; and Sister Sarah Brown, the mission doll, who ultimately wins the heart of a Gambler.

From the movie to its smash-hit Broadway revival in 1992 and now.... Clarkson Music Theatre proves that the "Guy is only doin' it for some doll"!!!!
